Delaney of Colons has purchased the structure at a cost of $60,000. Its former owner, the Thompson Bros., real estate men of Grand Forks, purchased the building last July, the price given at that time being $52,000.

Car Tears Up Building.—One box car of an eastbound Milwaukee freight train left the track for some unexplainable reason in yards of the Moline Channel ice company at Twenty-fourth street and Third avenue, tore away a large part of the wagon shed and then landed in a corner of the horse barn of the ice company before the train was brought to a stop. The car crashed into a corner of the barn, tearing the entire corner away. Two horses in that part of the barn broke loose just in time to save themselves from serious injury. May Declare Cassetta Insane.—Action to have Gerolamo Cassetta declared to be insane will be made by local authorities as soon as the Italian has recovered from injuries caused by exposure of his hands and feet to the elements. Further light was cast on the coming of the Italian to this city and the happenings which separated the crazed alien from his 4-year-old son. Police stated this morning that the Italian and the boy were taken into custody at 6:30 Sunday morning because the father was creating disturbances in various restaurants. Both were sheltered in the police station but were not locked up. Finally the elder Cassetta made an excuse to go outside. That was the last the police saw of him. They do not know whether he lost his way in the darkness or was afraid to return. Cassetta was found late Sunday night wandering about the Dr. A. H. Arp farm. He was barefooted and his hands were unprotected. His clothes were dripping wet. He was placed in care of a physician and was taken to the city hospital. Meanwhile the police called Scilvio Pansueli, 1519 1/2 Second avenue, and he took the younger under his wing and will care for him till the parent is able to do so. It has been learned that Cassetta has a wife and six children in Palermo, Italy. He has been in San Francisco 14 months. He left there several days ago and had transportation provided for his entire homeward journey.

Dr. Hartman Speaks About Catarrh of the Lungs

S. B. Hartman, M. D., Columbus, Ohio. A report of these statements reached the doctor's ears. As soon as he heard what people were saying he was very quick and emphatic in his denial of any intent on his part to create such an impression.

No, said the Doctor, I do not claim to have any magical cures. I do not claim to have a cure for anything. Judging from the number of letters I receive, however, concerning Mrs. Eberlein's case, from people who have similar complaints, I should judge that catarrh of the lungs is very prevalent. The number of people afflicted are increasing. In spite of the strenuous efforts of health boards catarrh prevails more and more every year.

No, I do not claim to have a miraculous cure. I only recite some of the things the people tell me who take Peru-na. The case of Mrs. Eberlein, for instance, she was apparently dying of catarrh of the lungs. Her physician had told her so. Many people who had seen others die under similar conditions thought her to be dying. She commenced taking Peru-na and recovered.

Now, I do not undertake to explain her recovery. I certainly do not undertake to say that Peru-na will cure anybody in the last stages of catarrh of the lungs. I make no such claim. But I do undertake to say this. As long as there is life there is hope. The doctors are liable to be mistaken. They often condemn people to die when they do not die. They say, "Mrs. So-and-So cannot live 24 hours." and then Mrs. So-and-So has not a ghost of a show of living, but Mrs. So-and-So gets well. Now, what is it that cures such cases?

Every doctor knows that it is the vitality of the patient. The last grain of vitality was not exhausted, just enough vitality left to make one more struggle, and the disease was overcome.

Now, it may happen that Peru-na is taken at the critical moment in case. The patient may have been losing ground day after day. At last the light seems hopeless; death inevitable,

Quite a stir in medical circles was produced by Dr. Hartman's last article in which he refers to the remarkable cure of Mrs. Eberlein of Pittsburgh. The impression prevails that Dr. Hartman claims to be able to cure incurable diseases. A report of these statements reached the doctor's ears. As soon as he heard what people were saying he was very quick and emphatic in his denial of any intent on his part to create such an impression.

Not that Peru-na cures incurable diseases. No, not at all. But Peru-na does lend a little much-needed assistance at a time when a feather weight on one side or the other of the balance turns the scales in favor of or against the patient. Scores and scores of times Peru-na has come in at these critical moments and saved patients from imminent death. At least it seems so. I have bushels of letters reciting such things.

Peru-na is a diffusive stimulant. It stimulates the circulation. It causes a warm glow of health to pervade the mucous membranes of the body. The mucous membranes of the stomach, alimentary canal, kidneys, bladder, lungs, all the mucous membranes are apparently revived, rejuvenated, re-endowed with the glow of health. That is what Peru-na will do. And this often saves life. There can be no doubt of it.

Whether the case be one of catarrh of the lungs or any other chronic prostrating illness, the right stimulant at the right time, in the right doses, does the work. Explain it as you may, such things are happening every day.

I prefer not to use the word cure. I do not like the sound of it. I do not like the idea that people generally attach to the word. But that Peru-na helps Nature, and helps Nature sometimes when she is sadly in need of help, that I know to be the truth. That I do not hesitate to proclaim. That is exactly what occurred in the case of Mrs. Eberlein, the account of which has caused so much comment.

If I or any of my immediate relatives had catarrh of the lungs, Peru-na would be given a thorough trial. I assure you. That being the case, I can conscientiously advise any one else to do the same.

FACE A SIGHT WITH TETTER

Began With Pimple. Spread All Over Face. In Agony All the Time. Itched and Smarted. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Was Cured.

Moberly, Mo.—"My trouble began with a small pimple on the left side of my face and it spread all over my face and to my neck. It would be scarlet red when I got warm. My face was a sight. It looked very unpleasant, and it felt uncomfortable. My face was something awful. It just kept me in agony all the time. Some said it was that awful eczema, but I rather think it was tetter. I had been troubled with it for about two years and tried many remedies but got no relief until I used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment.

"When I would wash my face with the Cuticura Soap and apply the Cuticura Ointment it would cool my skin and draw great big drops of matter out of the skin. You would think I was sweating; it would run down my face just as though I had washed it. It itched and smarted and I suffered in the day time most from the heat from the store. I used the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment for a month and I was cured of it. I will tell everyone I know who has any trouble of the skin." (Signed) Mrs. J. Brooks, Apr. 15, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold throughout the world. A single set is often sufficient. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

—Tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free. (Advertisement.)
